GOSSIP OF WALL STREET, BONDS IN NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

Stock Trading Light. Although the strength of a few stocks and the weakness of a few others gave the market a show of irregularity yesterday, the undertone was decidedly steady.

Money at 10 Per Cent. Money loaned at 10 per cent, until the last half hour of trading, when a few bids, which suddenly struck the call loan market, put the rate up 2 per cent to 10 per cent.

American Brake Shoe. The long deferred plan for the recapitalization of American Brake Shoe and Foundry Company is likely to be consummated soon, according to a report in Street.

Liquidating Rail Collateral. The heavy influx of the railroad stocks in the United States market has been the result of the liquidation of the collateral of the American Railway Express Company.

The Carb Building. Plans for the construction of the new building in Trinity place, just north of Wall street, which will house the New York Stock Market Association are progressing rapidly.

Stutz Motors. The chief subject of discussion in the financial district just now is the remarkable appreciation of the Stutz stock which touched a new high of 370 yesterday.

Stencils Financier. The Standard Oil of New Jersey has been listed and that others of the Standard Oil group are headed for the big board.

Over the Counter Business. Despite the fact that Standard Oil of New Jersey has been listed and that others of the Standard Oil group are headed for the big board, it is not likely that the over the counter business in these stocks and others of similar caliber will dry up.

Custom Receipts $674,063. Receipts for duties at the Custom House yesterday were $674,063, of which $169,259.04 was for merchandise.

Stock Market Holds Up Well in Spite of High Rates for Call Money.

RAILS CONTINUE HEAVY Trading is Further Contracted and of Little Interest and Exchange is Irregular.
